

The Best American Nonrequired Reading 2008

By -

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, 2008. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: From the Introduction, Featuring an Interview with Judy Blume The book you're holding is part of a series which every year seeks to compile a varied and unexpected anthology of fiction, nonfiction, essays, journalism, comics, and humor. The books in the Nonrequired series are still assembled in much the same way they've always been--passionately and unscientifically. This anthology, part of the Best American juggernaut that includes everything from the original Best American Sheetrock Poetry to the newest addition, Best American Canadian Marsupial Short Fiction Featuring Lewd Woodworking, is considered the best of them all, chiefly because ours usually features the highest volume of cursing. In an effort to keep the collection moving in new ways and avoid litigation, we decided to ask questions of our guest introducer, the unimprovable Judy Blume. There's actually a piece in this collection called Are You There God? It's Me. Also, a Bunch of Zombies. Is this the first time someone has adapted one of your titles to apply to the undead? Judy Blume: As far as I know this is the first time my title has...
