Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Group of My Ancestral Dames of the Colonial Period The age in which we live is one of restless energy and eager rush to satisfy the needs of daily life, or to grasp its passing pleasures, and scant time has been spared for studying the annals of the past - but they who do not think it worth their while sometimes to give a thought to those to whom they owe their very being, are like him who, Shakespeare says, had no music in his soul. The motions of their spirit are dull as Night and their affections dark as Erebus. But inspired perhaps by love of country, or pride in our material prosperity and greatness, we seem at last to have wakened to the importance of recalling our ancestors, and from all sides comes the question Who were they who laid the beginnings of so great a Nation? Genealogical research has shown that long indifference and neglect have shadowed our National honor in that so many of the heroes (and heroines) of those...
