Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mitch and Laci will experience a great loss and return to the Pacific Northwest for healing and renewal. On their trip however, they encounter a new friend and a business venture that will bring Mitch s brother, Brad, a little closer to finding love. Brad too longs to find his one, but no one seems to compare to his one true love - the woman he left behind years ago for money and his career. To remind himself of their love, on what would have been their wedding anniversary, he writes her a letter. Never mailed. Never opened. Never read.until this year, after a storm changes everything. Hannah s estate is in foreclosure - unable to keep her family s estate after her parents death. Sparks begin to fly however after the estate is purchased and the new owner arrives - the same man who was the love of her life. The same man who left her years ago. Hannah must deal with painful memories from her past as she is forced to work with him and save her estate, but will her stubborn pride cause her to push him away again? Hannah begins to see Brad in a new light, and the love she felt for him long ago starts to return, however a storm of events will begin that may destroy their last chance for love, as well as Hannah s life. Brad and Hannah will face both tragedy and loss as they rekindle their love, reminding them that grace always follows the storm.hey call him the Killer Cartographer because he carves the map coordinates of each victim on the femur...
