Missing Arabella (Paperback)

By Kathryn Siebel

Oxford University Press, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback.
Book Condition: New. 198 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A twin banished .an unbreakable bond .an unlikely fairytale. Sometimes a disaster is just a disaster, and nothing good can be said about it. But sometimes a disaster is an excuse for a fresh start. Arabella and Henrietta are twins. If you saw them, you d find it very hard to tell them apart. But once you get to know them, you ll discover that although they look alike, that s where the similarity ends .Henrietta is a constant headache for her parents-always causing problems and upset. Why, oh why can t she be more like Arabella? Sent away to live with strange Aunt Renfrew, Henrietta wonders if she ll ever see Arabella again. But the bond between sisters is strong, and even stronger when your sister is also your twin and your best friend. And so Arabella begins her journey through the forest to find Henrietta .A contemporary and unique fairytale for modern readers. Perfect for fans of books by Emma Carroll and Michelle Harrison.
