By Yoav Ariel

Princeton University Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 251 x 175 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In analyzing evidence indicating that K ung-ts ung-tzu was a forgery, Yoav Ariel questions current views of the Confucian school in the time between the Sage s death in the fifth century B.C. and the emergence in the eleventh century of Neo-Confucianism. The text, traditionally ascribed to a descendant of Confucius, K ung Fu (264-208 B.C.), provides a setting for a series of philosophical debates between K ung family members and representatives of such non-Confucian schools as Legalism, Mohism, and the School of Names. However, finding that this text was probably fabricated by the controversial Confucian master, Wang Su (A.D. 195-256), Ariel explains how it sheds light on the third-century philosophical milieu: Confucianism then is seen to have been not only Taoistically metaphysical, individualistic, and escapist, but also aggressive in advocating early Confucian values. The first part of Ariel s book deals with the general characteristics, history, dating, authenticity, and authorship of the text. The second part is a fully annotated and analyzed translation of the first of the two traditional volumes that constitute the K ung-ts ung-tzu. Originally published...
