Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Committee of Public Safety: For the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Activities of official State departments essential to the efficiency of the committee s program have also been placed at its command so that it stands as the one organization having equipment and capacity for carrying out its great and vital work. Thus the committee has succeeded in effecting a concentration of effort not paralleled at any other time in Pennsylvania s history and probably unexcelled by any other State mobilization of potential resources. Though possessed of this effective organization and having already demonstrated impressive efficiency in the operations of a number of its departments, the committee will not, of course, be able to display all that it is capable of achieving until the more active participation of the Government in the great war brings all of its own planned activities into service. Up to the present the military and naval situation and acute food conditions have been of dominating importance throughout the State and nation, with the result that activities have been centered in those departments...
