It is more than wonderful: it is so awful, that, were it not for the consolations which the Catholic religion confers, it would be overwhelming and appalling. What Catholic can realise, even in a faint measure, all that is involved in the fact that he, personally, is a Catholic, and not tremble at the thoughts on which he dwells? Take any one of us - the writer of these lines, or any one Catholic who reads them - and think for a few moments what that person is, and the spiritual condition in which he is at this moment existing. On every side he touches on the Infinite and the Eternal. Himself a mote in the sunbeam, a speck in the universe, his past, his present, and his future are all bound up in ineffable intimacy with the will and the glory of the everlasting...
