RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 70 pages. Excerpt: . . . ded in the draft legislation are the physical threats posed by electromagnetic pulses and geomagnetic storms. Based on the testimony that we receive today the committee will need to decide if we should address those issues within this legislation. As the chairman has noted, this committee is just 1 of 7 committees that are examining the cyber issue. What were considering today is an electricity sector piece. But it does appear that the administration and the leadership prefer a government wide, comprehensive approach to cyber security. Clearly cyber security involves a great many actors and a host of technical considerations. Well work to report out our part of the cyber puzzle. Then if a comprehensive approach is decided on, certainly work with other committees and leadership in fitting our piece into the broader field. I thank you again, Mr. Chairman, and look forward to the testimony from the witnesses. The Chairman. Thank you very much. We have 5 witnesses today. Let me just introduce them briefly. The Honorable Patricia Hoffman, who is the Assistant Secretary for the Office of Electricity Delivery and...
