Since Christmas I had discontinued my school, and we thought this supposition the most natural. At the hour appointed I went to the schoolmaster s house. Being ushered into his study, I found him still in his shawl-patterned dressing-gown, with a black velvet skull-cap covering his grizzled locks. He received me kindly, but nervously; offered me a chair near the fire, tried two or three himself, and finally, balancing himself on the edge of the table, took up two open letters, and handed them to me. This business is a very painful one, Miss Brande: will you have the goodness to read those letters, he said. For a minute or two I was so startled that the lines waved up and down before my eyes, and I could not read a word. Oh, the sickness of heart - the utter misery that fell on me when at last the sense was made out! About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
